Last Will and Testament

I, ROBERT E. WILLIAMSON, of Montgomery County, in the State of Maryland, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare and publish this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke any and all Wills and Codicils previously executed by me.

FIRST: I direct my Executor to pay the expenses of my last illness, my burial, as such burial is determined by my Executor whose decision is final without court approval, unless I have provided instructions relative to such burial or have provided separate instructions to the contrary, all claims that are legally enforceable against my estate, and the expenses of the administration of my estate, such expenses and debts to be paid out of my estate in such amount as my Executor may deem proper and without regard to any limitation in the applicable local law as to the amount of such expenses and debts and without necessity of prior Court approval. However, any debt or expense secured by a mortgage, pledge, or similar encumbrance on property owned by me at my death shall not be paid by my estate, but such property shall pass subject to such mortgage, pledge, or similar encumbrance.

SECOND: Upon my death, I direct my Executor to follow my intentions relative to the donation of my body to the nearest medical facility for any purpose, including patients in need of organ or tissue transplants for the purposes of transplantation or any other purpose authorized by law, pursuant to the Maryland State Anatomy Board card I signed on June 20, 2010. Any portions not so used shall be cremated and the ashes shall be disposed of by wife, CARYL J. MCNEILLY, of Rockville, Maryland; if she doesn't so dispose of my ashes, the ashes shall be disposed of by the Maryland State Anatomy Board. However, my estate will not be charged for any costs associated with my donation of my body to the Maryland State Anatomy Board and any recipient of any organ donation shall bear all expenses related to such donation.

THIRD: I give and bequeath all my tangible personal property, consisting of automobiles, wearing apparel, art, household furniture and furnishings, by way of illustration, to my wife, CARYL J. MCNEILLY, of Rockville, Maryland, giving deference to any instructions dealing with such tangible personal property or any specific bequests of money to any individuals or organizations, that I have set forth in any memoranda, signed and dated by me. In the event my wife has predeceased me, I give and bequeath, with no need to equalize, per stirpes, all my tangible personal property to my two (2) sons, CHRISTOPHER PRESTON WILLIAMSON, of Lafayette, Colorado, and BENJAMIN JAMES WILLIAMSON, of West Palm Beach, Florida, giving deference to any instructions dealing with such tangible personal property or any specific bequests of money to any individuals or organizations, that I have set forth in any memoranda, signed and dated by me. In the event both sons do not want any item(s) of tangible personal property or cannot agree between themselves as to any item(s) of tangible personal property, then said item(s) shall be sold and the net fair market value proceeds shall be distributed equally between my two (2) sons. The costs of distributing such property, including the costs of selling, shipping, appraising, and insuring any of that property, shall be borne by my estate. My wife does not have any children of her own and I have two (2) sons from a prior marriage: my son, CHRISTOPHER PRESTON WILLIAMSON, of Lafayette, Colorado, and my son, BENJAMIN JAMES WILLIAMS, of West Palm Beach, Florida.

FOURTH: In the event I have any real property, or interest therein, at the time of my death, I give and devise said real property or interest therein, to my wife, CARYL J. MCNEILLY, of Rockville, Maryalnd. In the event my wife predeceases me, I direct my Executor to sell said real property, or interest therein, shall be sold by my Executor and the net fair market value proceeds shall be added to my residuary estate, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH FIFTH.

FIFTH: In the event my wife survives me, all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, including, without limitation, cash, stock, and similar investment instruments, shall be distributed as follows: Five (5%) percent shall be distributed, per stirpes, to my son, CHRISTOPHER PRESTON WILLIAMSON, of Lafayette, Colorado, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH SIXTH; five (5%) percent shall be distributed, per stirpes, to my son, BENJAMIN JAMES WILLIAMSON, of West Palm Beach, Florida, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH SIXTH; ten (10%) percent shall be distributed to the charities that I have set forth in any memoranda, signed and dated by me, and the balance shall be distributed to my wife, CARYL J. MCNEILLY, of Rockville, Maryland. In the event my wife predeceases me, all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate shall be distributed as follows: one-third (1/3) shall be distributed to the charities that I have set forth in any memoranda, signed and dated by me; one-third (1/3) shall be distributed, per stirpes, to my son, CHRISTOPHER PRESTON WILLIAMSON, of Lafayette, Colorado, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH SIXTH; and one-third (1/3) share shall be distributed, per stirpes, to my son, BENJAMIN JAMES WILLIAMSON, of West Palm Beach, Florida, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH SIXTH.

SIXTH: The distribution of the residuary for both of my sons shall be transferred to the Testamentary Trustee hereinafter named who will be responsible for managing and administering the Testamentary Trusts for those beneficiary sons, IN TRUST NEVERTHELESS, for the following uses and purposes, and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

(1) The Trusts for each son shall be distributed as follows: commencing at the time of my death, for the first nine (9) years, (10%) percent of the principal and interest shall be distributed to each son, and for the tenth (10th) and final year, the remaining balance shall be distributed in its entirety.

(2) It is my intention that the purpose of the Trust funds is to provide for the health, education, maintenance, and support of my beneficiary sons (herein referred to as "beneficiary" or "beneficiaries").

(3) To administer each Trust most effectively, the Trustee is granted all rights and discretions over the assets in the Trust that could be exercised by persons owning similar assets in their own right and that are provided under the laws of the State of Maryland and as set forth in the Maryland Estates and Trusts Article, Title 15-102, "Powers of a Fiduciary," or any successor sections. The rights and discretions shall be exercisable only in a fiduciary capacity, as the Trustee determines in the Trustee's absolute discretion to be advisable, without authorization or approval by any court.

(4) In the event any beneficiary son of mine shall die while his respective Trust is in effect, then any remaining amounts shall be distributed to said beneficiary's issue, per stirpes, which shall be placed in a Custodial account, as set forth below in PARAGRAPH SEVENTH, for the benefit of said beneficiary son's issue. If such beneficiary does not have any issue then living, said share shall be distributed to such beneficiary son's sibling.

(5) Each Trust shall terminate after the tenth (10th) year of distribution of the Trust Funds.

SEVENTH: If any beneficiary grandchildren under this my Last Will and Testament, if applicable, is younger than the age of twenty-one (21), his or her share will be placed in a custodial account pursuant to the Maryland Uniform Transfers to Minor's Act ["Estates and Trusts" Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Sections 13-301 and 13-324] to be used for the health, education, maintenance and support of such beneficiary, until the time such beneficiary reaches the age of twenty-one (21). I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint as Custodian, if applicable, KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA, with the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company, in Stockton, California. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA is unable or unavailable or unwilling to serve as Custodian, then KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA shall appoint a substitute or successor Custodian in her sole judgment without court approval, from the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA fails to so appoint a substitute or successor Custodian, then anyone from the firm of Iacopi, Lenz & Company shall serve as substitute or successor Custodian. My Custodian or any substitute or successor Custodian shall not be liable for any losses resulting from any action taken by them pursuant to the powers granted to them in this my Last Will and Testament, so long as they act in good faith. No bond or other security shall be required of my Custodian or of any substitute or successor Custodian, in the faithful performance of their duties in such capacity.

EIGHTH: No interest of any beneficiary under any Testamentary Trust or Custodial account created under this Last Will and Testament shall be assignable in anticipation of payment thereof in whole or part by the voluntary or involuntary acts of any such beneficiary or by operation of law, and shall not be subject to the obligation or liability of such beneficiary.

NINTH: If any beneficiary under this Will shall interpose objections to the probate of this Last Will and Testament, or institute or prosecute or be in any way interested or instrumental in the institution or prosecution of any action or proceeding for the purpose of setting aside, challenging, contesting , or invalidating this Last Will and Testament which I have created, then I direct that such beneficiary shall receive nothing whatsoever under this Last Will and Testament, and the bequest or devise made to him or her shall lapse. However, nothing contained in this PARAGRAPH NINTH shall be construed to prevent my Executor, or their successors, from instituting or bringing any action, suit, or proceeding for the construction or interpretation of my Last Will and Testament or of any Codicil thereto, nor to prevent any beneficiary herein named from disclosing relevant information in the a proceeding for the probate of my Last Will and Testament or its construction.

TENTH: I hereby confirm my intention that the beneficial interest in all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible (including joint checking or savings accounts in any bank, savings and loan association, or other financial institution), which is registered or held, at the time of my death, jointly in the names of myself and my wife, shall pass by right of survivorship or operation of law and outside of the terms of this Will to my wife, if she survives me. To the extent that my intention may be defeated by any rule of law, I give, devise, and bequeath all such jointly held property to my wife should she survive me.

ELEVENTH: I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint as Testamentary Trustee for my sons' Trusts, KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA, with the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company, in Stockton, California. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA is unable or unavailable or unwilling to serve as Trustee, then KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA shall appoint a substitute or successor Trustee, who is with the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA fails to so appoint a substitute or successor Trustee, then anyone from the firm of Iacopi, Lenz & Company, shall serve as substitute or successor Trustee. My Trustees shall not be liable for any losses resulting from any action taken by them pursuant to the powers granted to them in this my Last Will and Testament, so long as they act in good faith. No bond or other security shall be required of my Trustees or of any Successor, in the faithful performance of their duties in such capacity. My Trustees shall have all the powers conferred on such fiduciaries by the law of the state of Maryland, including those more specifically set forth herein.

TWELFTH: I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint my wife, CARYL J. MCNEILLY, of Rockville, Maryland, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and of my estate. In the event CARYL J. MCNEILLY is unable or unavailable or unwilling to serve as Executor, I appoint KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA, with the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company, in Stockton, California, as substitute or successor Executor. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA is unable or unavailable or unwilling to serve as Executor, then KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA shall appoint a substitute or successor Executor who is with the firm, Iacopi, Lenz & Company. In the event KATHLEEN SOLARI, CPA fails to so appoint a substitute or successor Executor, then anyone from the firm of Iacopi, Lenz & Company, shall serve as substitute or successor Executor. My Executor and substitute or successor Executors under my Will shall not be liable for any losses resulting from any action taken by them pursuant to the powers granted to them in this, my Last Will and Testament, so long as they act in good faith. No bond or other security shall be required of my Executor and of any Successors, in the faithful performance of their duties in such capacity. My Executor shall have all the powers conferred on such fiduciaries by the laws of the state of Maryland, under Maryland Estates and Trusts Article, Title 7-401, "Powers of Personal Representative," including those more specifically set forth herein.

THIRTEENTH: In the management, care, and disposition of my estate and of each trust, I confer upon my Executor and Trustee, and their successors in office, in addition to the powers granted under the laws of the state of Maryland, the power to do all things and to execute such instruments as may be deemed necessary or proper, including the following powers, to be construed in the broadest possible manner, all of which may be exercised without order of or report to any court, and in their absolute discretion:

a.) Retain. To keep and retain any or all investments and property, real or personal, as there may be at the time they come into the custody of my fiduciary, regardless of the character of same or whether they are such as then would be authorized by law for investment by fiduciaries, or whether a disproportionately large part of the estate (or trust) remains invested in one or more types of property, for such time as my fiduciary shall deem best, and to dispose of such property by sale, exchange, or otherwise as and when my fiduciary shall deem it advisable.

b.) Sell. To sell, assign, exchange, transfer, and convey, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the investments and property, either real or personal, which may be included in or at any time become part of the estate (or trust), upon such terms and conditions as my fiduciary may deem advisable, at either public or private sale, either for cash or deferred payments or other consideration; and for the purpose of selling, assigning, exchanging, transferring, or conveying the same, to make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments of conveyance, deeds of trust, or assignments in such form and with such warranties and covenants as my fiduciary deems expedient and proper; and in the event of any sale, conveyance, exchange, or other disposition of any of the property, the purchaser shall not be obliged in any way to see to application of the purchase money or other consideration passing in connection therewith.

c.) Invest. To invest or reinvest in such securities or other property, real or personal, including any participation in any common trust fund, without regard to any rule of law or court limiting investments, and to retain any property at any time received or held by my fiduciary hereunder, for such period as my fiduciary shall determine.

d.) Lease. To lease any or all real, personal or mixed property of any kind, which may be included in or any time become a part of the estate (or trust), upon such terms and conditions as my fiduciary may deem advisable, regardless of whether such lease or leases may extend beyond the term of administration of my estate (or trust); and for the purpose of leasing said property, to make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments in such form and with such covenants and warranties as my fiduciary may deem expedient and proper.

e.) Vote. To vote any stocks, bonds, or other securities held by my fiduciary at any meeting of stockholders, bondholders, or other security holders, and to delegate the power to so vote to attorneys in fact or proxies under power of attorney, restricted or unrestricted.

f.) Borrow. To borrow in the name of my estate (or trust) such sums for such periods and upon such terms as my fiduciary shall deem necessary or convenient in the administration of my estate (or trust), and to secure any such loan by mortgage or pledge. No lender shall be bound to see to or be liable for the application of the proceeds, and no fiduciary shall be personally liable, but each such loan shall be payable only out of assets of my estate (or trust). Any such loan may be made by my fiduciary at rates of interest then prevailing.

g.) Compromise, Sue and Defend. To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on, or to defend, abandon, or otherwise deal with and settle claims, in favor of or against the estate (or trust) as my fiduciary shall deem best, and such decision shall be conclusive.

h.) Distribute in Kind. To make distributions in cash or in kind, or partly in each, provided that distributions in kind shall be based on values at the time of distribution, and to allocate particular assets or portions thereof or undivided interests therein to any one or more of the beneficiaries hereunder without regard to tax basis; the judgment of my fiduciary concerning values for the purpose of such division and distribution of the property or securities shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested therein.

i.) Income and Principal. To determine in a fair and reasonable manner whether any part of the estate (or trust), or any addition or increment thereto, shall be considered income or principal, or whether any cost, charge, expense, tax, or assessment shall be charged against income or principal, or partially against income and partially against principal.

j.) Real Estate. To repair, alter, improve, renovate, reconstruct, and demolish any of the buildings on the real estate held by my fiduciary, and to construct such buildings and improvements thereon as my fiduciary may in my fiduciary's discretion deem advisable.

k.) Attorneys and Agents. To employ and compensate, from the funds held hereunder out of the principal or the income, or both, as my fiduciary shall deem proper, such accountants, brokers, attorneys in fact, attorneys at law, tax specialists, realtors, and other agents and advisors, including those who are associated with my fiduciary, deemed by my fiduciary as needed or advisable for the proper administration of the estate (or trust), and to do so without liability for neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative, provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.

l.) Business Interests. To continue or to permit the continuation of any business, incorporated or unincorporated, which I may own or in which I may have any interest at the time of my death, without necessity of court approval for such period, or to liquidate the same upon such terms as my fiduciary in my fiduciary's discretion shall determine, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing power (1) to invest additional sums in any such business even to the extent that my estate (or trust) may be invested largely or entirely in any such business; (2) to act as or to select other persons (including any beneficiary hereunder) to act as directors, officers, or other employees of any such business, the same to be compensated without regard to their being a fiduciary or beneficiary hereunder; and (3) to make any other necessary arrangements with respect to the operation of any such business.

m.) Depreciation. To deduct from the income of my estate (or any trust) a reserve for depreciation of any depreciable asset and to authorize the income beneficiary thereof to take such deduction or to apportion such deduction between themselves as fiduciaries and the income beneficiary in such manner as they shall deem proper.

n.) Environmental Hazards. To respond (or take any other action necessary to prevent, abate, or "clean up") as my fiduciary shall deem necessary, prior to or after the initiation of enforcement action by any governmental body, to any actual or threatened violation of any environmental law affecting any property, the cost of which shall be payable from the estate or the trust assets.

o.) Nominee and Location. To hold investments in the name of a nominee or in such manner that title shall pass by delivery and to keep any or all of the assets of the estate (or trust) at any place or places in the United States or abroad or with a depository or custodian at such place or places.

p.) Tax Elections. To file joint income tax returns and split gifts for gift tax purposes with my spouse, to select the valuation date for death tax purposes and to use administration and medical expenses as income or estate tax deductions, and to exercise other elections at my fiduciary's discretion, without adjustment of income and principal accounts or other interest in my estate.

q.) Insurance. To initiate or continue any insurance policies as deemed necessary, including property, liability, title, and any other insurance, and to pay premiums and collect funds under those policies.

r.) Payments/Distributions to Minors. To make payments or distributions for the use of any minor either to the Guardian or such minor or to the person with whom such minor resides, or by applying such payments or distributions for the benefit of such minor, and the receipt of the Guardian or person with whom such minor resides or evidence of the expenditure of such payments or distributions for the benefit of such minor, shall fully discharge my Executor and Trustees with respect to any such payment or distribution.

s.) Renunciation. To renounce and disclaim in whole or in part any rights I might have to succeed to any property, real or personal, or interest therein.

My Trustees shall continue to have all the rights, powers, and duties herein vested in them after the termination of any trust created hereunder and until the complete distribution of all property held by them.

FOURTEENTH: If my wife and I should die as the result of a common disaster or under such circumstances that it cannot be determined who was the survivor, my said wife shall be presumed to have predeceased me, and the provisions of this, my Last Will and Testament, shall be construed upon this presumption, notwithstanding any provisions of any law to the contrary.

FIFTEENTH: If any beneficiary under this Will dies within thirty (30) days after my death, all of the provisions in this Will for the benefit of such person shall lapse and this Will shall be construed as if such person predeceased me.

SIXTEENTH: All fiduciaries named in this Last Will and Testament shall be entitled to reasonable expenses as well as compensation as set by Maryland law and regulation.

SEVENTEENTH: Where appropriate, the masculine shall include the feminine and the neuter, the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

EIGHTEENTH: I direct that all estate, inheritance, succession, legacy, transfer, and other death taxes, and all interest and penalties with respect to those taxes, imposed by reason of my death with respect to property required to be included in my gross estate for purposes of such taxes, whether such property passes under this Will or otherwise, and payable to any federal, state, or foreign taxing authority, whether payable by my estate or by any recipient of such property, shall be paid as follows:

A. Payment of Death Taxes – If My Spouse Survives Me. Upon my death, if my spouse survives me, the estate property shall qualify for the marital deduction under section 2056 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), as amended, resulting in no federal or state estate tax generated by such property.

B. Payment of Death Taxes – If My Spouse Has Predeceased Me. The Executor is to take into account my total gross estate and any non-probate property, and the taxes shall be paid out of the residuary estate, as an expense of administration, without apportionment.

C. Payment of Inheritance Taxes or Generation-Skipping Transfer Taxes. The burden of any Maryland state inheritance taxes, if applicable, shall be borne by the recipients of any specific gifts of cash and property. The Executor shall be permitted by any applicable law to recover from the recipient of any such property the recipient's proportionate share of such taxes.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament and have signed each of the preceding pages this 18 day of September, 2015, in the presence of the individuals witnessing at my request.
